30 Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.181 and 1.705(b) and 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(3)(B)(ii), Applicant hereby petitions the Commissioner for reconsideration of the patent term adjustment in Application Serial
No. 09/689,222.

In a Notice of Allowance mailed in this application on June 15, 2010, a 35 patent term adjustment of 785 days is indicated. Applicant submits that this patent term adjustment calculation is in error and that for the reasons discussed below, Applicant is entitled to a patent term adjustment of 1236 days.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(b)(1), Applicant includes herewith the requisite fee as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.18(e).

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(b)(2)(ii), in the attached Exhibit A Applicant presents a listing of the relevant dates as specified in §§ 1.703(a) through (e) for which the patent term adjustment is sought and the patent term adjustment as specified in § 1.703(f) to which Applicant submits the forthcoming patent is entitled. The basis or bases under 37 C.F.R. § 1.702 for which patent term adjustment is sought is also included in Exhibit A pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(b)(2)(i). Exhibit A lists relevant dates in the format of the date on which a particular event occurred (the “Date” column), the deadline in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.702 for taking action in response to that event (the “Deadline” column), and the date action in response to that event was actually taken (the “Actual” column). The adjustment (in days) for which patent term adjustment is sought for each event for which the deadline for taking action was earlier than the date action was actually taken is listed in the “Credits (days)” column.

Additionally, in determining the amount of patent term adjustment to which a patent is entitled, the USPTO must consider both the “guarantee of prompt patent and trademark office responses” and the “guarantee of no more than 3-year application pendency.” 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(A) and (B). To determine a correct patent term adjustment in view of these statutory guarantees, the USPTO must consider the amount of time associated with each of these guarantees minus applicable overlap. Wyeth, et al. v. Dudas, 580 F. Supp. 2d 138 (affirmed by Wyeth, et al. v. Kappos, Fed. Cir. 2010, 09-1120).

As indicated in Exhibit A, the present application was filed on October 11, 2000. The patent term adjustment for the forthcoming patent is entitled to a credit for any time period in excess of 3 years of application pendency. In the present case, this time period is calculated from October 11, 2003 (3 years after the filing date) until the issue date. During the course of prosecution of the present application, Applicant filed a request for continued examination on April 30, 2007, thus triggering the issue date provision for purposes of determining the patent term adjustment. 35 U.S.C. § 154(b)(1)(B)(i). Accordingly, as part of the patent term adjustment calculation, the forthcoming patent is entitled to a credit for the time period occurring between October 11, 2003 (3 years from the filing date) and April 30, 2007. As indicated in Exhibit A, this time period is 1297 days.

5 The time period occurring between October 11, 2003 (3 years from the filing date) and April 30, 2007 (filing of the request for continued examination) overlaps the time period occurring between December 11, 2001 (14 months from the filing date) and February 9, 2004 (mailing of the first Office Action). The time period of this overlap is between October 11, 2003 and February 9, 2004, which is 10 121 days. This overlap is indicated in the “Overlapping Delays (As per Wyeth Judgment)” row in Exhibit A.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(b)(2)(iii), it is noted that the present patent application is not subject to a terminal disclaimer.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.705(b)(2)(iv), in the attached Exhibit A, 15 Applicant presents a listing of circumstances that may result in a reduction of overall patent term adjustment due to Applicant’s delay in concluding prosecution of this application.

Accordingly, and in view of the facts presented above and in attached Exhibit A, Applicant hereby requests reconsideration of the patent term
20 adjustment indicated in the Notice of Allowance and requests a patent term adjustment for the forthcoming patent of 1236 days.

25 Respectfully Submitted,

Date: September 13, 2010
